

Special Education Case Manager

Description of Duties:

Washington Latin is seeking a Special Education Case Manager for the immediate school year. The Case Manager will report to the Co-Directors of Student Support Services, and will manage a caseload of students with Individual Education Plans, who receive related services for Special Education. The role of the Case Manager is multidisciplinary, and involves the coordination of services that the student is meant to receive both inside and outside of the classroom. The Case Manager is responsible for the following duties:

- Supporting the academic understanding of students on his/her caseload by both pushing in and pulling students out of the General Education Inclusion setting
- Overseeing the delivery of IEP services from Related Service Providers
- Conducting Annual IEP Reviews with members of the IEP team, including the student, the student's family, and general education teachers.
- Keeping all paperwork regarding the student's IEP services current and accurate
- Working with General Education teacher on planning, modifying, and delivering instruction and assessments.
- Ensuring that all academic testing (both statewide and in classrooms) in which a student participates includes his or her IEP Accommodations.

The role of the Case Manager requires a candidate who is equally detail oriented, and comfortable building relationships with a diverse set of stakeholders- adults and students alike. The Case Manager must work in person with the student, his or her teachers, and his or her family to ensure that he or she is receiving an excellent education given his or her unique needs. The Case Manager must also manage all of the paperwork entailed in providing Special Education Services in the District of Columbia.
