What is Unified Classroom (UC)?
This is where teachers post information for students and parents about class plans, assignments, test dates, etc. It is accessible through PowerSchool, our student information database where each student’s individual information is posted.

How would I know if I have a UC account?
The login page for UC is http://classroom.powerschool.com/ The username (called the PowerSchool ID) for that account would be your email address.

UC is where students and parents accessed assignments during the spring distance learning period.

If you were able to log in to access this information last year, you have a UC account.
